

NEW IN 2022!

Become a Community Partner of ACORN

WHEN YOU PARTNER WITH ### YOU SUSTAIN OUR LOCAL FOOD COMMUNITY.

By increasing access to local healthy food, improving market access for producers and deepening agricultural engagement in our community, ACORN has been weaving a more resilient, localized food system since 2005.

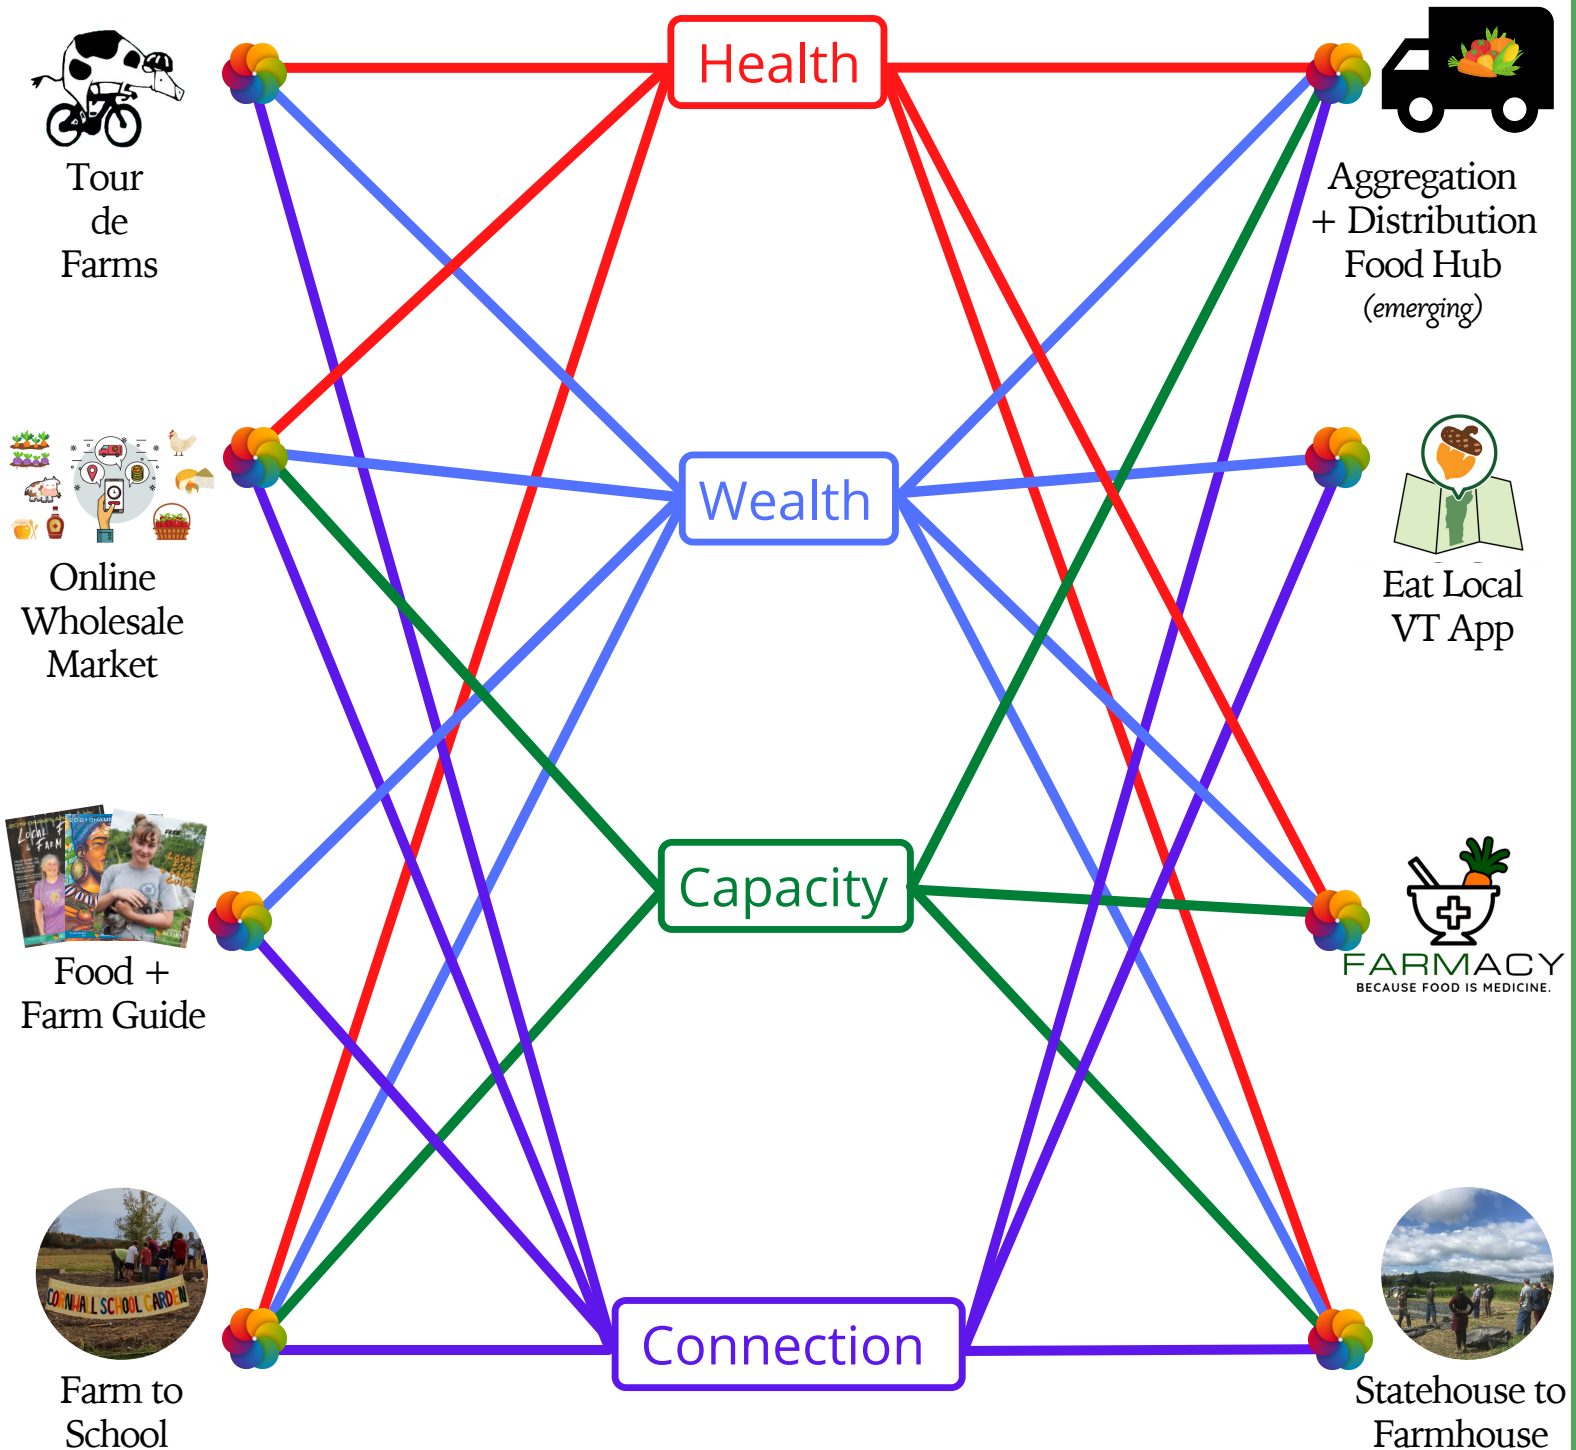

"A food system, at its basic, should build:

HEALTH, WEALTH, CAPACITY, CONNECTION.

The industrial food system we have

FAILS ON ALL THESE FRONTS."

- Ken Meter, food systems analyst, President of the Crossroads Resource Center and author of Building Community Food Webs

ANNUAL COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIP LEVELS

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Changemaker$5,000 | Sustainer$2,500 | Cultivator$1,000 | Seed Sower$500 | Soil Builder$250 |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------|----------------------|-----------------------|---------------------|-----------------------|
| Listed as sponsor in ACORN press releases                                                                                                                                                                                            |                        |                      |                       |                     |                       |
| Highlighted in ACORN's Annual Meeting Presentation                                                                                                                                                                                   |                        |                      |                       |                     |                       |
| Logo and hyperlink on ACORN's Sponsor webpage                                                                                                                                                                                        |                        |                      |                       |                     |                       |
| Listed in our monthly e-newsletter, Cultivating Connections                                                                                                                                                                          |                        |                      |                       |                     |                       |
| Highlighted quarterly through our social media                                                                                                                                                                                       |                        |                      |                       |                     |                       |
| Logo and hyperlink in our monthly e-newsletter, Cultivating Connections                                                                                                                                                              |                        |                      |                       |                     |                       |
| Logo on Farmacy webpage and print brochure                                                                                                                                                                                           |                        |                      |                       |                     |                       |
| Listed as a sponsor at any ACORN events                                                                                                                                                                                              |                        |                      |                       |                     |                       |
| Champion sponsor of the TDF: Logo & link on TDF webpage, acknowledgment in TDF email blasts, large logo in printed & digital communications, logo on route map distributed to riders, banner at event, exhibit table, 4 free tickets |                        |                      |                       |                     |                       |
| Rotating banner on ACORN's homepage with logo and hyperlink                                                                                                                                                                          |                        |                      |                       |                     |                       |
| Full page color ad in Guide to Local Food and Farms                                                                                                                                                                                  |                        |                      |                       |                     |                       |
| Featured as partner in ACORN's Eat Local VT App                                                                                                                                                                                      |                        |                      |                       |                     |                       |
| Pace Setter sponsor of the TDF: Logo & link on the TDF webpage, acknowledgment in TDF email blasts, large logo in printed & digital communications, logo on route map distributed to riders, exhibit table, 2 free tickets           |                        |                      |                       |                     |                       |
| Half-page color ad in Guide to Local Food and Farms                                                                                                                                                                                  |                        |                      |                       |                     |                       |
| 1/4 page color ad in Guide to Local Food and Farms                                                                                                                                                                                   |                        |                      |                       |                     |                       |
| Spin Master Sponsor of the Tour de Farms: Logo and link on the TDF webpage, acknowledgment in TDF email blasts, small logo in digital/print communications, 2 free riders                                                            |                        |                      |                       |                     |                       |
| High Wheeler Sponsor of the Tour de Farms: Logo and link on the TDF webpage, acknowledgment in TDF email blasts                                                                                                                      |                        |                      |                       |                     |                       |
| Listed on ACORN's Sponsor webpage                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                        |                      |                       |                     |                       |

HOW TO BECOME A COMMUNITY PARTNER:

1. Select your partnership level
2. Complete a partnership form: www.acornvt.org/partner
3. Submit payment by check or online

Contact Jonathan Corcoran with any questions:
JCorcoran@acornvt.org / (802) 989-2583

THANK YOU FOR SUPPORTING OUR LOCAL FOOD + FARMING COMMUNITY

